

Forest School

The children in Green Class have been planting flowers and doing activities in the Forest School. They have been helping to create the bug hotels by adding dry leaves which mimic a natural forest floor, sticks or straw for ladybirds (they eat aphids) and other beetles and bugs. Later on we hope to be able to study these insects closely using scientific equipment.

