

Measuring

We have been learning about non-standard and standard methods of measuring. At the beginning of the week we used Numicon to measure our heights. We then progressed to using rulers to measure different lengths of sticks in the Forest School.

