

January 2019

We have had an amazing
Police themed week!

Something strange had happened in the classroom.

We had to investigate!

We were traffic officers outside and we had a police station inside too!

The highlight was a visit from a real police officer! We got to try on some real police uniform and we loved looking at the police car too.

