

Year 5 children have thoroughly enjoyed learning about World War 2 and were able to experience for themselves what it would have been like to be at school in the 1940s. Last term, we linked our learning to our trip to the RAF Museum by producing our own leaflets to advertise it.

